Hundreds of tennis courts, with all comforts and set in a green and relaxed environment, are a great opportunity for the lovers of this sport, not to mention beach tennis, which seems to become more and more popular. Again about "beaches", we must not forget that in Cervia such sports as soccer, volleyball, basketball, golf and rugby can be played on the beach, thus becoming proper beach sports. In the latest years love for these sports has grown steadily so that nowadays each bathing establishment offers in Cervia at least a delimited and equipped playing area on the beach.

The town's long boulevards are lined with shops and boutiques where visitors can buy a wide range of famous brand-name goods, together with bars, pubs, ice-cream parlours, and restaurants offering local, international and ethnic cuisine. There are innumerable traditional events that have made Cervia famous throughout the world, including the International Kite Festival and the World Sand Sculpture Championship. Some of the local festivals have a more ancient flavour, such as: the Wedding of the Sea, an ancient ceremony dating back to the year 1445, San Lorenzo's Night, and the yearly Salt Festival.

The image shows the official seal of the Comune di Cervia, which is circular and contains the text "COMUNE DI CERVIA" around the perimeter. To the right of the seal is a handwritten mark resembling a stylized "N". Below the seal is a large, flowing handwritten signature, and to its right is a smaller, more compact handwritten signature.

Cervia's fine-sand nine-kilometre-long beach and its not-too-deep and smoothly slanting seabed grant families and their babies or young children safety and relax. The legendary lifeguards watch over those having fun on the beach or at sea, while the beach establishments welcome tourists with first-rate services. Swimming, surfing, sailing and water-skiing schools offer great chances to children and grown-ups. Most of the beach establishments have got quality certifications and the many blue-flag certifications of these latest years grant the quality of sea-and-beach-resort services and further of the countless activities addressed to disabled people.
